

From: Chad Walldorf <walldorf@gov.sc.gov>
To: Joel Sawyerjsawyer@gov.sc.gov
Marisa Crawfordmcrawf@gov.sc.gov
CC: adams.marcia@scdmv.netadams.marcia@scdmv.net
Marcia.Adams@scdmv.netMarcia.Adams@scdmv.net
Date: 1/7/2005 11:58:41 AM
Subject: GA DMV

---

From Governing.com
Governor Vows Driver's Licensing Fixes
Gov. Sonny Perdue vowed to reduce the long lines at driver's license centers across Georgia by hiring more examiners and turning the Department of Motor Vehicle Safety into a "customer-oriented, across-the-counter service organization" focusing solely on the issuance and renewal of driver's licenses.
MORE: Atlanta Journal-Constitution

If you guys are talking Healthy GA with Purdue's office, it would be worth mentioning to them that if they are truly interested in turning around their DMV, they may want to touch base with the best DMV director in the country who is right next door.

CW