What is the exact language we should use to describe the way the process works with Clemson tickets?

A group of Clemson supporters provide the Governor a suite in Death Valley for use during home football games, a gift which is annually disclosed on her Statement of Economic Interests in accordance with the State Ethics Act.

Doug Pardue just sent these follow up questions below. Holly or Swati could you get us the exact language we should use to describe the way the process works with Clemson tickets? I'm going to get in touch with Wes about the second question.

When the governor uses the tickets for Clemson football games, is she provided a box or a suite?

At USC games, what is the value of the suite and the tickets the Governor's office receives. If you can just tell me what it was for last year, that will be fine.
