They've made a brief pitch to another staffer in our office, but as I understand it, they're selling some kind of early childhood project that's unrelated to the direction we're currently going with the SIB pilot. I don't have any other experience with them and didn't have any intention of following up on my side. I'll forward you what they emailed us, though.

Hey Christian,
Please see the email chain below between Mike & Sebastian (both SIB Lab-affiliated staff at Harvard) and Ralph Fagen. Sebastian requested that I be part of this phone call. Do you know anything about Progressive Learning or have any thoughts about Sebastian and I speaking with Ralph?
Thanks!
Erica

Hi Erica,

I was in touch with this organization in SC, which I believe may want to be a service provider for a SIB in SC. Have you been in touch with them? How do you usually respond to this type of communication?

Thanks,

Sebastian

Ralph and Sebastian,

I'm writing to introduce you to each other. Sebastian is program manager at the HKS SIB Lab. Ralph is executive director of Progressive Learning, an education social enterprise. Ralph has been in conversation with Governor Haley's office in South Carolina about an education SIB and is also connected with Phil Noble, who I think Jeff is meeting this month.

Best,
Mike
