The LAC is an independent, third-party governmental audit agency, and it's work is generally quite good. The Assembly certainly takes their work as trustworthy and often uses it to legislate. They're doing a review of DSS Adult Protective Services, and Andy Young at LAC called with some information. I've known Andy a long time, and I believe that his information will be valuable, especially in light of the issues that have been raised by House members. He's at 803-253-7612. I'll call him this morning to let him know that you're on board.
