Subject: We want to know what you think about Governing

Dear Kevin,

Governing has teamed with Harvey Research, Inc., an independent research firm, to conduct an important survey of our readers to learn more about your professional interests and how you acquire and use information related to our industry. Your feedback will be used by Governing to help make our editorial content even more useful to you.

The survey should take no more than 10 minutes of your time. In appreciation for your feedback, you will have the opportunity to enter a drawing to win a $250 Visa Gift Card or have this amount donated to a charity of your choosing upon completion of the survey.

Of course, any information you provide will be kept strictly confidential and used only for statistical analysis.

To participate please click on the following link:
