Yes, Steve got the word last week. Unfortunately his wife had serious heart surgery just yesterday and Steve will not be able to join us. No word yet on the success of the surgery.

Thanks for your help- past, present and future!

I've been working with our boards and commissions folks...they tell me that the appointment paperwork has been completed and delivered, so Steve should be able to participate tomorrow. If you hear of any other glitches, just let me know. Thanks.
