I just read the email - they asked for some additional media contacts. They only have a Charleston list.

Swati –

We know that a ton of credit for these bills goes to your work and commitment. Knowing that you have played such a valuable role in improving our state is something that will be honored by your family for generations.

LWVSC has developed the attached media statement for tomorrow and are happy to distribute. I have a decent list for the Charleston area but would love to have a broader list for the State if the Governor's office has one they can share.

Thanks again,

Julie

JoAnne - the Governor will be so pleased that you will be able to attend on behalf of LWV! Lynn was a great partner for me on this most challenging effort...but well worth it.

Let me know if you would like to say a few words at the press conference. We haven't finalized the speakers yet.

Swati,

Regrettably Lynn Teague is on vacation and enjoying some long needed rest and relaxation. She has been unbelievably dedicated and persistent in helping achieve at long last the passage of some very important ethics reform bills. I plan to come to the signing event to represent the League since this has been our major legislative focus and truly a grass roots effort for our organization for four years.

We also plan to do a press release on the passage of the bills.

I will look forward to seeing these bills finally signed into law.

Warm regards,

JoAnne Day
