WHCOA Regional Forum Summaries

We're only two days away from the 2015 White House Conference on Aging (WHCOA)! The excitement is building, and we hope that you're planning to get involved with this once-a-decade event that will feature the President and other senior administration officials. More than 600 public and private Watch Parties—in every state—have been organized and registered with WHCOA. Let's keep the momentum going. Host a watch party and —whether public or private—register your Watch Party on the WHCOA website. Join the conversation by using #WHCOA on Facebook and Twitter.

You'll also find brand new materials on our website on the WHCOA Regional Forums. Summaries from the regional forums in Tampa, Phoenix, Seattle, Cleveland and Boston are now available. The summaries provide an overview of speeches, panel discussions, and what people were saying about aging issues and challenges at each event.
