

The Honorable Nikki R. Haley
The Office of the Governor
1205 Pendleton Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

November 28, 2016

Dear Governor Haley,

May I congratulate you on your splendid appointment as our Permanent Representative to the United Nations. I think you are a terrific choice and wish you every success in your new assignment there. As a veteran of service at both USUN and the Dept. of State, I'm honored to send you two books relating to the unique cultures of these two institutions. The first, "The Incidental Oriental Secretary and Other Tales of Foreign Service" came out this September and is a partly tongue-in-cheek view from inside the Dept. and USUN, as well as a number of posts abroad. The second, "The Non-Aligned, the UN and the Superpowers" is, of course, dated but still current on bloc voting and its impact in the Security Council and General Assembly. I am under no illusion that you have much reading time during your current transition, but would be delighted to think of my books in your library as you set off for New York.

With best wishes,

Richard L. Jackson

13388 Polo Rd. W.

Wellington, FL, 33414

RICHARD LEE JACKSON

13388 Polo Road West

Apt. B-301

Wellington, Fl., 33414

Tel: 561-249-2318;

Email: rjackson@act.edu

Consulting, 2009-2016: Regular consulting on higher education abroad and in the US for the Council on American Universities Abroad (CAUA) as well as for individual clients, and freelance writing. Assignments have included site visits to Latvia, Romania, Mongolia, Western Sahara, Albania and New York City, as well as extensive research on Jordan. Volunteer alumni interviewer for Western Palm Beach County applicants to Princeton University.

President –Anatolia College and American College of Thessaloniki, Greece, 1999-2009

- Supervision and Management of integrated educational center combining 6-year secondary school for 1,300, 4-year liberal arts college for 500 with MBA program, and elementary school for 600 students.
- Fundraising with individual donors and foundations.
- Liaison with Greek and US Governments and all school-related Associations including Friends of Anatolia, Alumni Association, parent groups etc.
- Close contact and coordination with Chairman of the Board and 55 Trustees of Anatolia in the United States and Greece.
- On-site supervision, construction and fundraising for new 45,000-square foot ACT library, performing arts center, classroom annex and sports field.
- Long-range planning including graduate education and accreditation as private, non-profit college in Greece, as well as continuing NEASC accreditation.
- Recruitment and retention of optimal faculty and administrative staff at, elementary, secondary and college levels.

Executive Director - Association for Diplomatic Studies and Training - 1998-99

- Supervised program operations including Oral History, Publications, Museums/Displays, Seminars, Scholars-in-Residence and Support for the National Foreign Affairs Training Center.
- Supported the Association President in Fundraising and Membership Expansion.
- Published the Association Newsletter.

Director for Egypt and North Africa, Department of State - 1995-97

- Provided policy direction and supervision of US relations with Egypt, Algeria, Morocco, Tunisia and Libya.
- Coordinated US response to civil strife in Algeria, violation of UN sanctions by Libya and negotiations to resolve the Western Sahara conflict.
- Managed foreign policy aspects of $2.1 billion Egyptian aid program and was member of inter-agency group on the Gore-Mubarak partnership.

Dean of Area Studies, Foreign Service Institute - 1991-95

- Contributed as member of senior management team to educational policy and operations of National Foreign Affairs Training Center, charged with foreign affairs training for employees of USG agencies operating abroad.
- Managed faculty, administrative personnel and budget for worldwide area studies program with 2,000 students per year.
- Planned curriculum and personally taught area studies courses for North Africa.

Deputy Chief of Mission/Charge d'Affairs, Rabat, Morocco - 1989-1991

- As Deputy to the Ambassador and, in his absence Charge, supervised operations of 7 USG agencies at the US Embassy in Rabat and branch posts in Casablanca, Marrakech and Tangier.
- Planned and executed on short notice the mandatory evacuation of 680 Americans from Morocco during the Gulf War.
- Initiated and chaired regular meetings of 3 American schools in Morocco to formulate common policies and joint use of resources.

Consul General, Casablanca - 1986-1989

- Led team of 42 Americans and 23 local personnel in protecting and advancing US interests in consular district stretching from Northern Morocco to the Western Sahara.
- Played lead role in Moroccan-American Chamber of Commerce and in US trade promotion and commercial outreach in Morocco's business capital.
- As Board Chair of the Casablanca American School, supervised and led successful campaign to plan, raise funds and build a new 600-student campus.

Other US Department of State Experience - 1965-1989

- Joined the Foreign Service in April 1965, serving in Somalia until 1966; Tripoli, Libya 1966-68; Washington 1968-72; Thessaloniki, Greece 1972-75; Athens 1975-77 as Commercial Attaché; Special Assistant to Under Secretary for Political Affairs David Newsom from 1978-80; 1980-81 in New York as Political Advisor to Ambassadors Donald McHenry and Jeane Kirkpatrick at the US Mission to the UN; from 1983-86 served as Political Counselor at the US Embassy in Rabat.

PUBLICATIONS: Book entitled The Non-Aligned, The United Nations and the Superpowers, published by Praeger as a Council on Foreign Relations Book in December 1983; articles for the Christian Science Monitor, New York Times, Palm Beach Post, The Non-Aligned World, The Review of International Affairs, and The Foreign Service Journal. Delivered paper to International Roundtable on Non-Alignment in Novi Sad, Yugoslavia in 1984; and to Council on International Educational Exchange in November 1993 (later published by CIEC). Published article on "The Role of US Colleges Abroad: Anatolia as a Case Study" in Fall 1999 issue of "The Mediterranean Quarterly", and co-authored analysis for Western Policy Center (WPC) on "Ending Greece's Ban on Private Universities", Fall, 2003. Presented paper to Woodrow Wilson International Center November 14, 2006 on "The Greek University: Policy Reforms in Higher Education;" published article in the Athens News March 9, 2007 entitled "The Case for Private Universities"; Article in Winter 2009 issue of Duke University's "Mediterranean Quarterly" entitled "American Universities Around the Med. and Beyond: The case for Support by the Obama Administration"; Article on China, entitled "A Tale of Two Parks" in the "Foreign Service Journal", January 2001; Article entitled "Ma Yinchu: From Yale to Architect of Chinese Population Policy" published in Spring 2012 "American Journal of Chinese Studies", and article entitled "The Unravelling of a Greek Tragedy", in September 2015 issue of "The Mediterranean Quarterly" and Sunday Dialogue article for New York Times, January 13, 2016. Prologue, epilogue and annex to second edition of Nelson Aldrich's "Tommy Hitchcock, an American Hero" published by Rowman and Littlefield in September, 2016; Memoir entitled "The Incidental Oriental Secretary and other Tales of Foreign Service Life", Hamilton Books, September, 2016, as an ADST-DACOR Diplomats and Diplomacy Book, presented on October 18, 2016 at DACOR/Bacon House in Washington, DC.

AWARDS: Meritorious Honor Award, 1968, Group Meritorious Award 1975, Superior Honor Award, 1975, Chapman Cox Sabbatical, 1982, Meritorious Honor Award, 1985, James Clement Dunn Award, 1987, Superior Honor Award, 1991, Order of Commander of the Alaouite Throne (King Hassan) 1981, Presidential Meritorious Service Award (President GW Bush) 1992, Superior Honor Award, 1995. Elected first President Emeritus of Anatolia College, Nov. 4, 2009.

ASSOCIATIONS: Senior Foreign Service Association Secretary 1992-94; Tangier American School Board 1984-86; Casablanca American School Board President 1986-89, member Board of Trustees 2002-2012; American Foreign Service Association, 1965-; Fellow of Tangier American Legation Mission Society (TALMS), 1999-; Coordinating Council for International Universities (CCIU) Board of Governors, 1999-2010; President, Association of American Colleges in Greece (AACG), 2003-7; Vice President, Association of American International Colleges and Universities (AAICU), 2005-7, President, 2007-2009; Member of Registry for College and University Presidents, 2010-. Member of Council of American Universities Abroad (CAUA) 2009- with consulting assignments in Romania, Mongolia, Western Sahara and Albania. First Honorary Ma Yinchu Fellow of Population Studies, Ma Yinchu Museum, Hangzhou, China, Summer 2011; Speaker at World Affairs Council of the Palm Beaches on "American Universities Abroad as a Component of Soft Power and US Outreach", September, 2012; Speaker and Panelist at National World War II Museum in New Orleans, Sept. 22, 2016.

EDUCATION: Princeton University AB (Magna Cum Laude in American Civilization); non-degree study at the Sorbonne, (Ecole Supérieure pour la Préparation et le Perfectionnement des Professeurs de Français à l'Étranger); Masters Degree in International Relations from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy (Tufts University); Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters, American College of Thessaloniki.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES: Greek, French, Italian and Somali.