Here you go Deanna.

Quote from Governor Nikki Haley, "I appreciate hearing from the leaders of our state's Christian universities. South Carolina has a proud tradition of upholding religious freedom. I look forward to working with the universities to make sure we continue to honor that tradition."

Hi Chaney,

My name is Deanna Pan; I'm a reporter from the Post and Courier. I'm working on a story about an open letter addressed to Gov. Haley from the presidents of seven Christian colleges, asking her to stand up for their religious freedom, and I need a comment from the governor's office. Could you please send me a statement? I would appreciate it.

Thank you,

Deanna
