TALKING POINTS:

- Thank you, Duane.
- It's a pleasure to be here with all of you this afternoon to celebrate Satisfy Your Thirst, a creative initiative and collaborative effort to promote our state's expanding beverage industry and further grow our tourism industry.
- For the Satisfy Your Thirst partners who are here with us today, I want you to know that we sincerely appreciate your participation in this initiative.
- Your involvement with Satisfy Your Thirst shows an important understanding of the many ways you and your businesses impact our state.
- As part of our $19.1 billion tourism industry, your businesses – whether it's a distillery, brewery or farm – are an essential component to a vital industry for our state, providing authentic and unique South Carolina products and experiences for millions of travelers to our state.
- As part of your local business community, you help to improve the quality of life in your area by providing jobs for local residents and providing revenues to support critical state and local services.

- As manufacturers, your products serve as the ambassadors of South Carolina's ingenuity, quality, and commitment to excellence.
- And, your businesses help to drive the state's economy and shape its culture, which are the two most important legacies we will leave to future generations of South Carolinians.
- So, thank you, for being part of this great initiative... for being a pro-active member of our state's tourism business community... and for being an example of how each and every one of us can help make every day a great day in South Carolina.
- Thank you and God bless.
