Zeny VJ Malcom So disappointed when we went last month . For the Entrance Fee we paid we didn't really see animals .

We thought it was a Zoo , but only few animals .

We felt like we paid just to walk thru the park .

We brought our Autistic son which he loves animals knowing there's plenty to see .

Main attraction was the Otters and one big Bear 😊

Jessica Splawn Every time I go there is a wedding going on or setting up. Beautiful venu but not available to walk on weekends in my experience.

at 16:31:46 on 11/15/2020 UTC

Debbie Price Gouldin Zeny VJ Malcom, to see animals in a nature park you might have to sit still and quiet for a very long time—definitely not a zoo!

Diana Forschbach Today was a beautiful day to be there.

Tanaya Baeker I really wish the animals had more space in "The Animal Forest". Especially that poor eagle that can barely move in his cage ☹️

Addah Carrigg Tanaya Baeker I'm not entirely sure but I heard that all the animals they use are rescue animals that cant live on they're own any more.

at 3:06:09 on 11/21/2020 UTC

Tanaya Baeker Addah Carrigg I like that. But they still need more space. I understand that some visitors would be disappointed if they don't see all the animals, but this should be about the animals' wellbeing first.

And even if the eagle could not fly anymore, he would probably appreciate more space.
