

From: Priester, Nicole <NicolePriester@gov.sc.gov>
Required: Godfrey, Rob <RobGodfrey@gov.sc.gov>
Adams, Chaney <ChaneyAdams@gov.sc.gov>
Subject: Columbia Urban League Interview
Location: Governor's Office
When: 10/29/2015 3:45:00 PM - 4:15:00 PM

Re: NH will be presented with the Stephen G. Morrison/Nelson Mullins Social Justice Award. This award is being presented to NH for her courageous leadership in mobilizing the effort that led to the removal of the Confederate Flag from the South Carolina State House and promoting the One South Carolina Movement. The award will be presented at the 48th Annual Fund Campaign and Equal Opportunity Day Dinner on Tuesday, November 3, 2015, at the Columbia Metropolitan Convention Center, 1101 Lincoln Street, in Columbia.

Background- Stephen G. Morrison/Nelson Mullins Social Justice Award - The Honorable Nikki Haley:
This award is named in recognition of Mr. Stephen G. Morrison, former partner of Nelson Mullins Law Firm and past board chair of Columbia Urban League, who used his legal skills to advance social justice and equal opportunity for the disadvantage and underserved. This award is being presented to Governor Haley for her courageous leadership and swift action in mobilizing the South Carolina General Assembly to remove the divisive Confederate Flag from the State House grounds in response to the massacre of the Mother Emmanuel Nine in Charleston, South Carolina.

Possible Questions:

What does the Columbia Urban League's 2015 Annual Fund Campaign & Equal Opportunity Day Theme: One South Carolina: Moving Forward through Unity, Cooperation and Civility mean to you?

What role does the Urban League play in helping South Carolina move forward?

Do you believe that the removal of the Confederate Flag from the State House grounds will create an opportunity to improve race relations and economic development?

Staff: Rob and Chaney

Attendees:

Courtney McCallum, WLTX

Mary Sato, WLTX

Regina R. LaBrew, Columbia Urban League

Scheduling Contact:

Regina R LaBrew

r.labrew@columbiaurbanleague.org