October 1, 2016

Dear Governor Nikki R. Haley:

The pleasure of your company is requested at the Hmong New Year held at the Spartanburg County Fairgrounds on November 5 & 6, 2016. The Hmong New Year Festival is a tradition of celebrating a successful harvest and has long since established itself with historical significance among the Hmong culture. It is a celebration of accomplishments during the past year and a time to welcome a new beginning. This is a time where the Hmongs dress in traditional clothing and enjoys traditional foods, dance, music, games, and other forms of entertainment.

Most importantly, it is essential to preserving the uniqueness of the Hmong culture, engagement of its youth and community building. Although the Hmong community is very diminutive here in South Carolina, we continuously see new faces each year.

It would be a great honor to have you join us at our yearly cultural celebration. We look forward to seeing you for our opening ceremony at 11am on November 6, 2016 at the Spartanburg County Fairgrounds.

If you have any further questions, feel free to contact myself via email at haasc1989@yahoo.com or call Mrs. Lee Moua, our festival coordinator, at 864-266-9628.

Sincerely,

Kham Moua
President,
Hmong-American Association of SC
