Can we meet tomorrow to discuss education stuff. We need to plan legislative meetings (Education conversations) with Gov soon but need to meet with her on the details of our proposals first which I'd like to do in the early part of next week.

Also, I'd like to know what the House study committee is doing. I saw last week that they have recommendations that will be put in a final report by the end of the year. Do we know if legislators will pre-file all/some of those recommendations?
