Sneak Peek

The "Hospital Observation Stay Crisis": A Senate Special Committee on Aging Hearing

by Hillary Anderson

On May 21, the U.S. Senate Special Committee on Aging held a hearing on the "Hospital Observation Stay Crisis." As a summer law intern with the ABA Commission on Law and Aging, I had an opportunity to attend. Here is an up-close report.

Bifocal is distributed six times a year to state and regional elder bar section and committee officers and members, legal services providers, elder law and other private practitioners, judges, court staff, advocates, policymakers, law schools and elder law clinics, law libraries, and to other professionals in the law and aging networks.

The mission of the ABA Commission on Law and Aging is to strengthen and secure the legal rights, dignity, autonomy, quality of life, and quality of care of elders. It carries out this mission through research, policy development, technical assistance, advocacy, education, and training on a wide range of law-related issues, including: legal services to older persons; health and long-term care; housing; professional ethical issues; Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, and other public benefit programs; guardianship; elder abuse; health care decision-making; pain management and end-of-life care; dispute resolution; and court-related needs of older persons.
