Subject: What is Paint the Town Red?

Katherine --

We keep getting the question, "Is this a party? Is it a happy hour? Is someone giving a speech? Is it a fundraiser?"

Please allow us to clarify...yes and no.

We are celebrating 20 years of diligent service to our community by the SC HIV/AIDS Council. We recognize that our community has consistently been in the top ten worst states for the contractions of both HIV & AIDS. So, we are hosting an event that will be like no other you've attended in Columbia.

The proceeds of Paint the Town Red will go to the SC HIV/AIDS Council to help them continue to do the awesome work that they do. We'll start the evening off with some powerful networking, a live DJ, and great food in an awesome venue. There will be some awareness to help showcase how HIV & AIDS impacts all of us.

Paint the Town Red will take place at 6:00pm on Thursday, November 13th at the NEW Sheraton Convention Center on Main & Washington streets. We hope that you will join us!

Hosts:

Mayor Steve Benjamin	Lindsay Richardson, USC Student Body President
Councilman Brian D. Newman	Rodrick & Candace Jackson Shiver
Chairman Aaron Bishop	Kiosha Gregg
