Re: Requests for information regarding refugee resettlement in states

NGA has been asked to serve as a one-time conduit for states that would like additional information from the State Department regarding refugees. As indicated in the recent letter from White House Chief of Staff Denis McDonough, governors wishing to receive state-specific information are to submit their request through NGA along with specific state contact information. NGA will forward all requests to the State Department who will communicate directly with each state's point-of-contact.

If you governor wishes to receive state-specific information regarding refugee resettlement, please send your state point-of-contact to David Quam (dquam@nga.org) and Jeff Bates (jbates@nga.org).

We will submit your request to the State Department within 24 hours of receipt.

If you have any questions, please feel free to write or call me at dquam@nga.org (202-624-5309).
