COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) - Governor Nikki Haley has put her own people in charge of many top state agencies. She's also re-shaping the boards and commissions overseeing those agencies. Haley's actions could give the private sector greater influence in the public arena. ... "You're going to see a lot of clean house," said Haley, "You're going to see a lot of new faces, and you're going to see a lot of pro-business initiatives that come out of these boards and commissions." ... Haley also rejected suggestions she is rewarding campaign donors with her appointments. ... She said some of her choices to head agencies even donated to her opponents.
