

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, adult day services are community-based group facilities designed to meet the needs of functionally and cognitively impaired adults; and

WHEREAS, adult day centers provide their clients with high-quality programs and services including restorative and functional maintenance, rehabilitation, skilled and preventative care, and individual and group activities; and

WHEREAS, in addition to offering participants the opportunity for enriching educational, therapeutic, and social experiences outside the home, adult day services provide much-needed assistance to caregivers and other loved ones; and

WHEREAS, with the theme, "Adult Day Services: Building and Supporting Communities," this year's observance draws attention to the contributions adult day services facilities offer to the people and communities of the Palmetto State.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim September 18-24, 2011, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the many contributions made by adult day centers to the quality of life of elderly and disabled people and their families.

ADULT DAY SERVICES WEEK

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Nikki R. Haley".

NIKKI R. HALEY
GOVERNOR
STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA