hubbardsonthehitch I was surprised how interested my 12 and 13 year old thought Atalaya was. It was fun to imagine what life was like living there. The gravity fed water system is super cool!!

cccinnamonlips I love the terrace that would have at one time overlooked a swimming pool and then the Atlantic Ocean in the background! This is one of my favorite places to visit ☐ marmarpearce The quiet that envelops you when you enter the gates.....so serene, so removed from the noise of real life.

_pirate_black The bear cages were interesting. Atalaya only used live animals for references on her sculptures sculptures at 13:39:59 on 1/16/2020 UTC scstateparks @_pirate_black yes! Anna Hyatt Huntington was an amazing artist and sculptor!
