Yes she can use the plane. This is a charitable organization that recognizes principled leadership . Even though it tends to award republican leaders, it is not a political event. She is clearly getting the award based on her status as Governor and her leadership as Governor.

Richele-

Please see the attached invite the Governor received. If she is able to attend and accept the award in Washington, DC, would she be able to travel on the state plane?

Katherine and Nicole,

We would like to honor Governor Haley at our 2016 Kemp Leadership Award Dinner this December. Do you think she would be open to accepting this Award and speaking at the event? Please see the attached request with additional details.

The event is in Washington DC and we still have some date flexibility, but hope that the first full week of December would be workable.

If there is interest, we would love to discuss and answer any questions you all may have. I have copied Emma Watkins on this email and one of us will get back to you quickly.

Best regards,

Jimmy
