Virtual Meeting: The President's Committee for People with Intellectual Disabilities

Tuesday, April 7, 2015, 1:30 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. ET

The President's Committee for People with Intellectual Disabilities (PCPID) will host a virtual meeting for its members to discuss how technology can impact the lives of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families.

As with all PCPID meetings, the public is welcome to observe. For this virtual meeting, there are two options: listen via conference call or watch online.

To listen to the discussion, dial (888) 469-0957; when prompted, enter passcode: 8955387. Click here to register for the webinar.

PCPID is a federal advisory committee which promotes policies and initiatives that support independence and lifelong inclusion of people with intellectual disabilities in their respective communities. The committee includes representatives from several federal agencies and 19 private citizens. The discussion and findings from each PCPID meeting are included in an annual Report to the President.

Please visit the PCPID website for more information on its members and activities.
