September 28-30, 2015 • The Westin Alexandria • Alexandria, Virginia

September 28, 2015

7:00am

Symposium Registration & Breakfast

8:00am - 9:15am

Keynote Address

Confronting challenges, such as limited funding, requires collaboration. At the 2015 symposium learn how health centers are uniquely positioned to catalyze diverse collaborations that are eliminating health disparities and improving quality and access to care for public housing residents, the aging, and other special populations.

9:20am - 10:35am

Plenary I: Aging

As our older population grows and diversifies, we need to address its health challenges and offer meaningful solutions. This session will focus on the need of working together and sharing resources to address social determinants of health and create social and physical environments that promote good health for our senior population.

10:40am - 11:55am

Plenary II: Health IT

The Health IT session will demonstrate how Health IT and Meaningful Use of electronic health records (EHR) advance the vision of patient-centered care. Hear how Health Information Exchange collaboration within the health sector may generate new opportunities to provide high-quality and effectively coordinated patient care.

12:00pm - 1:55pm

Lunch Plenary: Commemorating 50 Years of Health Center Excellence

2015 marks the 50th Anniversary of the opening of the Columbia Point Health Center in Boston and the beginning of the Community Health Center Program in the United States. The history of this occasion is particularly relevant to Public Housing Primary Care because Columbia Point Health Center primarily served residents of the largest public housing development in New England. This story, told by those who know it well, is a source of inspiration and guidance for those dedicated to this movement.

2:00pm - 3:30pm

Workshop I

The breakout sessions feature subject matter experts that cover topics related to performance improvement, fiscal and health center management, outreach and enrollment, and specific health-related information about underserved populations.

4:00pm - 6:00pm

Symposium Reception

The 4th Annual H. Jack Geiger Awards will be presented to individuals and organizations that strive to achieve excellence in health care for the underserved.
