Rachael Smith-Shotwell Can I buy a state park pass today and it extend a year from when my current pass expires?

at 20:32:38 on 12/14/2016 UTC

South Carolina State Parks There is no discount on the park passports today.

Rachael Smith-Shotwell On the 19th it says 10% off park passes. So will it not extend my pass? Say my pass is due to be renewed in March 2017. If I buy it this month will it renew to March 2018?

South Carolina State Parks You are correct about the 19th. You said "today" so I thought you may have thought the 20% off in our online store applied to the passports. I am not sure if we can do this or not. Let me check into that and get back to you.

Connie Reuter Is anyone else having issues getting the discount code to apply?

David Warren First year in a long time were not staying at mb state park cabins during christmas break, big price hike, use to be about a 100 per night, now 150, 6 night for almost a 1,000 was insane, were staying at a hampton inn in murrels inlet this year. For an off season time, those cabin prices are insane, cabins are nice but not that nice. Please consider a discount at that time , we want to come back.
