

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20110906South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_10150356283572597

South Carolina State Parks published a note.

at 14:29:35 on 9/06/2011 UTC ·

Tuesday tidbit! STASH YOUR TRASH!

South Carolina State Parks The 186 enthusiastic volunteers who helped us with this project.

at 14:33:40 on 9/06/2011 UTC

Tracie Gore Daryl whoever you are, it means that people need to pick up their trash and throw it in a proper disposal. The very nice 186 people that helped pick up the trash, on their own time, helped eliminate these items from one coastal state park and helped the environment and possibly saved some animals lives that may have eaten and probably died from it. Thank you to those who helped last year and maybe more will help this year. Maybe you, Daryl, should try it instead of making sarcastic remarks about it .

at 14:39:43 on 9/06/2011 UTC

Rhonda Hyman Eldridge I am a volunteer with the state parks. It is so amazing the trash that people throw down. Put liter in it's place!!!

at 14:55:01 on 9/06/2011 UTC

Karen R Herrington My son and I camped at many State Parks in SC, GA, NC - we always picked up one piece of trash every time we went on an walk from our camp site. Sometimes it even caught on with fellow campers.

at 15:02:55 on 9/06/2011 UTC

Shirley M. Purcell Well, Daryl, I think you made a foolish statement about who counted, also! Obviously, that's not the point. The point is that the job should not have to be done. There are too many uncaring litterers and encouraging them to be come better users is more important than making smart-a--- comments about it.

at 17:16:40 on 9/06/2011 UTC

Dawn Watson Weaver As a person who works at a state park, I pick up trash daily. And have been known to count cigarette butts just out of curiosity and to make the tedious trash picking up a bit less dull. I do my part when I'm working and I also do my part when I'm using ANY state park, because I know what goes on behind the scenes. There are MANY who are excellent stewards of our parks and who daily pick up behind others. I'd rather my kids, who are watching what I do, be the ones that do their part, rather than those who make the mess. Bless the volunteers and the employees of SC State parks for day in and day out constant preservation of some of our states best resrouces.

at 18:28:10 on 9/06/2011 UTC

Karen Mac i do NOT want to really count the daily amounts, i JUST want them to stop...wasting everything & how many ppl still smoke...im giving up cleaning for "work" soon / but i am hooked on getting reimbursed for aluminum cans finally in SC...

at 23:55:04 on 9/06/2011 UTC