Online Courses Added to the Schedule... and New Sessions Coming Soon!

NDC's online training format combines the best of our acclaimed classroom sessions with the convenience of anywhere access.

These three-hour sessions on specific development tools and programs are taught with the same skill and real-world expertise that make NDC training the best in the field. As a supplement to our certification programs and professional development courses, online training courses offer timely and useful information for both experienced practitioners and professionals new to the disciplines of economic, housing and community development.

Keep checking back! In the coming weeks, many new online training courses will be added to the schedule!

NDC's Online Training courses are approved activities for NDC recertification
