Brian,

It seems that the second sentence of the quote doesn't read smoothly and may include a typo. Would you all mind if we edited it slightly to:

"We welcome Sitel to South Carolina and celebrate their decision to do business in our state. By investing $2.5 million and thecreating 400 jobs it means forin Spartanburg County, Sitel is making a real commitment to our entire Upstate community, and I look forward to watching them grow and thrive there for many years to come." –Gov. Nikki Haley

If we need to keep it the way it was, that's fine too. Please advise.

Thanks,
Jeremy

Brian,

Good morning! I hope all is well. Just wanted to circle back around on the three quotes below, and especially on the quote needed for this afternoon's Sitel release. Our apologies for the quick turnaround needed on this one. The company reached out to us for the first time on Friday.

Let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thanks,
Jeremy

Brian,

Good afternoon. We wanted to go ahead and send over the first three releases for next week. Obviously, the quote for the Sitel release is most pressing as the company is aiming for a Monday afternoon distribution. Let us know if you have any questions or concerns regarding these.

Sitel (target distribution on Monday, May 9)

"It's always a great day in South Carolina when we can welcome a large, globally-recognized company, like Sitel, and celebrate their decision to do business in our state. By investing $2.5 million and creating 400 new jobs in Spartanburg County, Sitel is making a real commitment to our entire Upstate community, and I look forward to watching them flourish there for many years to come." –Gov. Nikki Haley [DRAFT QUOTE, NOT YET APPROVED]

thyssenkrupp (target distribution on Wednesday, May 11)

"When a company as expansive as thyssenkrupp decides to expand its footprint in our state, it's a true testament to the strong business climate we've built in all regions of South Carolina. This $1.4 million investment and the 32 new jobs it will create is not only a big win for our Lowcountry community, but our entire state, and should be celebrated as such." –Gov. Nikki Haley [DRAFT QUOTE / TO BE APPROVED]

Sioux Chief Manufacturing (target distribution on Wednesday, May 11)

"Today, we're excited to announce another great win for the manufacturing community here in South Carolina. Sioux Chief Manufacturing's $2.5 million investment and the 77 new jobs they are creating will have a real impact on the people of Cherokee County and should be celebrated, not only in the Upstate, but in all corners of South Carolina." –Gov. Nikki Haley [DRAFT QUOTE / TO BE APPROVED]

Thanks,
Jeremy
