Hi, Senator Davis. The revised national media story pitch about CVBs, with you added to it, is attached. I hope you find it to be very interested reading. And FYI, a national magazine that is the Bible of the nonprofit industry -- Nonprofit Quarterly -- is on the story as of today. They have assigned their investigative reporter, Rick Cohen, to it and you should be hearing from him in coming days or weeks.

Please note you are on the source list and mentioned in the text as a supporter of transparency, as are a number of local sources in Hilton Head and Charleston.

I continue to work on the Wall Street Journal and New York Times and I am confident I will soon also get one of them on the story, which will really blow it open nationally.

Thanks very much.
