White House Summit On Worker Voice #StartTheConvo

Grand opening in Wyoming

"Fifty-one years ago, Job Corps was conceived with the fundamental proposition that when we open doors of opportunity, when we help a young person rise above adversity and unlock her potential, we don't just empower a single person; we strengthen our communities and the entire nation," said Secretary of Labor Thomas E. Perez at the opening of the first Job Corps in Wyoming.

DOL Working For You

Living his dream, thanks to Job Corps

Frank Guerrero bounced around foster homes as a child and was headed for trouble. Looking back, he says enrolling in Job Corps gave him the support and guidance he needed to pursue his dream of building skyscrapers in Los Angeles.
