The South Carolina Department of Insurance Hosts a Catastrophe Claims Center in Florence, SC

The South Carolina Department of Insurance will host a Catastrophe Claims Center in Florence, SC on Tuesday, October 18th to assist consumers with their insurance questions and claims resulting from Hurricane Matthew. This is the second Catastrophe Claims Center hosted by the Department following Hurricane Matthew. "Anyone in the greater Florence area that has an insurance claim or property damage due to the hurricane should take advantage of this chance to talk to your insurance company face-to-face. Please join us in the Home Depot parking as we try to help Florence recover as quickly as possible," said Ray Farmer, Director of the South Carolina Department of Insurance.

South Carolina Department of Insurance staff will be available to assist and answer questions and will be joined by South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce, National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) and many of the major insurance companies covering the property and automobiles damaged in this event. Additionally, the South Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles will have a mobile unit on hand that can provide credentials and duplicate titles or registrations if consumers lost their originals in the storm.
