Hey Chaney I am reaching out to you because we would love to get a comment from Governor Nikki Haley of Head Coach Steve Spurrier on resigning today from the University of South Carolina. As you know he has been with the University for 10 years and we know he meant so much to the State of South Carolina. So we just wanted to know if Governor Nikki Haley will have anything planned for him in honoring him doing a great job and if she can just comment on him at all on the Job he has done for the University of South Carolina.... Thank You for your time I know the Governor is a very busy women but if we can get a comment from her or someone on her behalf that would be great....We would love to do this story today my information is below thank you again....
