I'm writing you Me Haley to ask for help. My fiance has lived in the United States got about 25 years he was married to a citizen here for 13 years before he divorced. We had some problems and was deported. I love him very much and he made me change my life an become a better person. I have applied for a passport to go to Mexico but I'm going to have to leave my children and all of my family. This just is so unfair. Everyone makes mistakes in life and nobody is perfect only God. My family and children love him also. He doesn't drink or smoke an he is a good man that made me change my life. He did try to get back to us but got caught. It's been about 4 months since we have seen him but we talk to him everyday. I need him in my and my family's life. Could you please help me? There isn't anything I wouldn't do to help him. All of his family is in the U.S. excerpt for one sister and he can't even find work over in mexico. I beg you to please help me to help him and my family to get him back. Thank you very much.
