Subject: Did you know...

15% of people age 65 and over are living in poverty, according to the U.S. Census Supplemental Poverty Measure. Women and people of color are especially impacted. With the growth of America's older population, there could be more than 11 million seniors living in poverty just 16 years from now. Now is the moment to do something about senior poverty.

To make the biggest positive impact on the lives of older adults you need access to the most innovative ideas, best practices and a strong network of like-minded colleagues. Will you be at AiA15?
