Catherine-

Please find the first draft of the standards attached. These will not be placed back on the web for public review until they are updated. We appreciate the assistance.

Good Afternoon Emily,

Superintendent Spearman has asked Danny Varat, our Chief of Staff and former state board member, to look at the proposed 2020 Social Studies College and Career Ready Standards. She had told him they were on the website, however we have discovered that is not the case. Would it be possible for us to please have a copy of those standards. Thank you.

The standards on the website are the old ones. Please call over there and ask them to send you the proposed new ones and print those. You can tell them that Molly asked me to review them
