Cindy Reynolds I'd love to rent one of your cabins, but your no pets rule has stopped me in my tracks, why do you guys have this rule and do you have any cabins that allow small dogs?

Elizabeth Christine Blame irresponsible pet owners that allow their pets to destroy property.
at 20:46:01 on 2/01/2019 UTC

Cindy Reynolds I'd be fine with paying a pet deposit.

Romeo Jenkins No cabins

Cindy Reynolds Romeo Jenkins right, I wasn't thinking of Croft, this is their policy for all their parks....

Ray Steele If you had ever stayed in a room/cabin and gotten eaten up by fleas from a previous renter, as I have you would understand the rule. I've had dogs and cats for pets for years, but not all pet owners are responsible owners and there's no way to know so the rule is there for good reason.

Heather Sughrue Yates Our girl scout troop had an awesome time at Croft State Park this past November, even with 37 degree mornings.

Penny Lillies Can you bring your own kayaks and what is the cost to get in? Or will the state park pass work
at 12:36:32 on 2/16/2019 UTC

Lori Tarnowski Hannah Penny you can bring your own and state park pass works or if don't have $2 per person to get in. We like Croft. Good hiking bike and horse trails too.
