We are happy to announce that on Monday, June 19, at 9 a.m., we will begin accepting new reservations for the Edisto Beach State Park oceanfront campground for arrival beginning on November 1, 2017. When making your reservations, please make sure to double check the campground map, as some sites may have changed.

While it is still our intention to open the beach campground in September, we cannot control the weather and acts of nature, and want to ensure that any new reservations made moving forward are not affected. Please stay tuned to the park website for more information: <http://bit.ly/2e6gXJY>
