Sharing Solutions: Building a "No Wrong Door" System of Access Webinar Recap

The National I&R Support Center hosted a webinar on the "No Wrong Door" System of Access in Texas. Strong partnerships between Texas Aging and Disability Resource Centers (ADRC) and 211 Area Information Centers are essential to providing a true "no wrong door" system of access. This webinar taught listeners about the Texas experience enhancing streamlined, person-centered information and referral services with respect to the Texas Balancing Incentive Program grant. State level and local ADRC and 211 network partners will highlight state-level initiatives and successful "best practice" models for outreach and referral management. The presenters were Leigh Schroeder, Manager, Program Business Operations, Strategic Operations and Grants, Texas Department of Aging and Disability Services; Beth Noah, ADRC Coordinator, Aging and Disability Resource Center of Tarrant County; and Vicki Mize, 2-1-1 Director, United Way of Tarrant County. This presentation was first given at the 2015 AIRS conference.

programs, "where they are provided with individualized and appropriate support in meeting high expectations." Presently, children with disabilities and their families face difficulties in accessing these programs that are available for their peers. The policy statement offers a vision of what states, local educational agencies, schools, and public and private early childhood programs can do to make early childhood programs more inclusive.

From the Administration

Administration for Community Living

Traumatic Brain Injury Grant Program Moving to ACL

The Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) Grant Program is moving from the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) to the Administration for Community Living (ACL), beginning on October 1, 2015. The TBI Grant Program has been housed by HRSA for almost 20 years and has been providing services to thousands of individuals living with traumatic brain injuries. Following the passage of the TBI Reauthorization Act of 2014, Health and Human Services (HHS) Secretary Sylvia Burwell was given authority to review the program's aims and goals to determine where it best fit within HHS. Beginning in Fiscal Year 2016, ACL will start issuing awards and will ensure there are no lapses in grant funding.

Listening Sessions on Draft Adult Protective Services Guidelines

The Administration for Community Living (ACL) recently released the Draft Voluntary Consensus Guidelines for State Adult Protective Services (APS) systems. ACL convened a group of national experts from the fields of Adult Protective Services and adult maltreatment to create the guidelines. ACL wants to hear from the public and is holding 6 listening sessions over the next few weeks. The proposed rule has been published in the Federal Register with a 60-day comment period. All comments must be submitted by October 30, 2015, at 5 p.m. ET.

Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services

Comment Period Extended for CMS Proposed Rule

In July, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services released a proposed rule to revise the quality and safety requirements for long term care facilities participating in the Medicare and Medicaid programs. The proposal would be the first rule update since 1991. The rule aims to improve care planning, ensure staff have the right skills and competencies to provide patient-centered care, and allow dietitians and therapy providers to write orders in their areas of expertise when a physician delegates the responsibility and state licensing laws allow. Additionally, the rule would add several new sections to the regulations, including person-centered care planning, behavioral health services, quality assurance and performance improvement, training, and more. Provisions covering infection prevention and control standards, visitation requirements, and an expansion of food choice for residents are also part of the rule. The proposed rule has been published in the Federal Register with a 60-day comment period. The comment period has been extended by thirty days. Now all comments must be submitted by October 14, 2015, at 5 p.m. ET.

Office of Disability Employment

Employment First State Leadership Mentoring Program Funding Available

The Office of Disability Employment created the Employment First State Leadership Mentoring Program (EFSLMP). EFSLMP provides a platform for multi-disciplinary state teams to focus on implementing the Employment First approach with fidelity through the alignment of policies, coordination of resources, and updating of service delivery models to facilitate increased integrated employment options for people with the most significant disabilities. Last year, 15 states were awarded core state funding. The current 15 Core States will receive funding for fiscal year 2016, and up to five new state will be funded following an application process. Applications for core state funding must be submitted by October 9, 2015, at 6:00 p.m. ET. Applications for new state funding must be submitted by October 12, 2015, at 6:00 p.m. ET.

From Congress

Preventing Falls and TBI-Related Injuries Among Older Americans Congressional Briefing Recap

A congressional briefing on Preventing Falls and TBI-Related Injuries Among Older Adults took place this past Wednesday. It was convened by Representative Bill Pascrell, Jr (D-N.J.) and Representative Thomas J. Rooney (R-Fla.), both of the Congressional Brain Injury Task Force in association with the Brain Injury Association of America, the National Council on Aging, and the National Association of State Head Injury Administrators.

The expert panel was moderated by Dr. Wayne Gordon, Jack Nash Professor, Vice Chair, Department of Rehabilitation Medicine, Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai. The distinguished panel of speakers featured Edwin Walker, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Aging, Administration for Community Living; Dr. Grant Baldwin, Director of the Division of Unintentional Injury Prevention at the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; Howard Bedlin, Vice President, Public Policy and Advocacy, National Council on Aging; Martha A. Roherty, Executive Director, NASUAD; and William A. B. Ditto, Chair of Public Policy, NASHIA. The panelists presented startling facts, explained the current policy climate regarding this issue, personal stories, and all made note of the fact that more needs to be done to prevent falls.

Alzheimer's Foundation of America

National Memory Screening Week This November

The Alzheimer's Foundation of America (AFA) is sponsoring the National Memory Screening Week (NMSW) which will be held from November 1st - November 7th this year. Last year when the event was one day long, the AFA screened over 250,000 people. A recent study shows that screenings may detect cognitive impairment up to 18 years prior to clinical diagnosis of Alzheimer's or dementia. This increased awareness brings a demand for memory screenings now more than ever. If you would like to participate in the AFA National Memory Screening Program please visit the link below.

Mathematica Center for Studying Disability Policy

Webinar: Child Supplemental Security Income Trends

Mathematica Center for Studying Disability Policy is hosting a webinar on State Trends in the Child Supplemental Security Income (SSI) Program: The Growing Role of SSI in the Safety Net. There has been a dramatic increase of children receiving SSI benefits over the past 15 years, a net increase of 45 percent. There is no policy or program change that explains this growth. Mathematica completed a new study for the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation that examines this increase and some of the reasons for it. The webinar will be presented by Mathematica experts: David Wittenburg, David Mann, Bonnie O'Day, Purvi Sevak, and John Tambornino of the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation at the United States Department of Health and Human Services. These presenters will speak about Child SSI growth trends and state-by-state variation in the county distribution of SSI recipients and the evolving pathways to the Child SSI program. The webinar will take place on Thursday, September 24, 2015, from 11:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. ET.
