Dear Lt. Gov. Kevin Bryant,

I just wanted to commend you on the article you wrote on “there’s a new pothole forming - in your wallet” which was published in the Greenwood Index Journal last Sunday. It certainly “hit the nail on the head”. I also would like to thank you and Governor McMaster for your opposition to this unnecessary tax burden on our residents. As a retired “senior” who lives on a fixed income I certainly don’t need another expenditure. I am a resident of Savannah Lakes Village in McCormick which is a retirement community. I have not talked to one person who was in favor of this tax. Apparently we have our own “swamp” here in South Carolina that needs draining. I am sure the voters will remember our house and senate members who voted for this tax increase next election day.

Thank you for the great job you and the Gov. are doing.

Sincerely,

Don H. LaDuke
