Haley Duncan Aguilar Laura Crowe Eanes dang, a beach Thanksgiving would have been fun!

Stacey Rene Mishey Butler man! Lol

Patricia Cannon Craig Wow.....guess I need to read up on prices for STATE parks. This seems very pricey to me.

at 13:31:11 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Charleton Bagwell With SC being a relatively poor state it's clear that the SCSP commission does not cater to the common residents of the state.

at 13:32:49 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Pine Forest Home and Garden Club Members Patricia Cannon Craig It's a house at the beach... not a camp site

at 13:38:44 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Nick Couch Patricia Cannon Craig it's walking distance from the beach and inside the park.
at 13:38:54 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Patricia Cannon Craig Pine Forest Home and Garden Club Members I understand that. See Charleston Bagwell's comment.

Kay Baker Patricia Cannon Craig I doubt you can get anything cheaper at the beach. If you believe SC to be such a "poor state" then being able to have something this nice and private to rent out at the beach would surely help this "poor state"
at 13:47:10 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Samuel Alan I've stayed in these cabins....$281 a night??? GTFOOH
at 13:47:17 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Wendy Thompson Isn't this State Park already tax payer funded? I understand charging some but that's ridiculous!
at 13:52:37 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Angela Smith Charleton Bagwell find six people and it's only $46.83 approx a night. 😊
at 13:53:25 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Celle GV Charleton Bagwell I don't know where you get the information that SC is a poor state! I guess we are so poor that we have exodus of people moving from very huge cities to our State! Maybe that's what drove the cabin rental so high or maybe locals can really afford this rate and tourists from very rich state finds these rate expensive!

Jenn Litty Why is this cabin available when I was just told that my lease for Camp Buckhorn at Paris Mtn for the weekend of April 29-May 2 is uncertain because all facilities are "day use only" right now & I can't use the 10 cabins that come with the weekend rental. My wedding planning is put on hold but you're encouraging people to come to this cabin??? Makes NO sense.

Shelley White Sarvis That price is ridiculous for a state park

at 13:58:42 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Jessica Wilkerson Phillips Love it! Someone is going to have a great time!

at 14:00:01 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Judi Anne Fillenwarth-Lenz That's pretty, but too pricey

at 14:01:13 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Brian Herring Pine Forest Home and Garden Club Members Please do tell... How is this so much better than all the other cabins at the state parks around the SC? We recently stayed in one at Edisto with another family. It was ok, but not as nice as houses we've stayed at on the SC coast. Listen I love the state parks and I go to them all the time. I've been to at least half of them and plan to go to all in the next few years. That being said it's a house at the state park. So do tell why this is on the same level at least as a house I might rent at the beach that's not a state park cabin. Or does your club rent out houses like this for this kind of price?

Melanie Younginer Maddox Wow. $281 per night? That's crazy expensive for what it is. Those of you defending the price have clearly never been here. First of all, it's not "private". It's right in the middle of the park where people are walking around. It's not on the beach, but near it. It's a cabin, not a house, and therefore it's very basic. Pets are not allowed. It's the off season at the beach. You can find a house on the beach for that price that's much nicer this time of year. South Carolina State Parks, you need to rethink your pricing.

at 14:02:10 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Natalie Dickson Black Charleton Bagwell- amen!

at 14:03:01 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Patricia Kansky-Compton Tamra Painter no pets

at 14:03:40 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Angela Tennant Adams The pictures of the accommodations and the prices do not mesh well. I'm sure there are lots of people who will pay this... Separating fools from money and all that... But for nearly 300 a night I'd expect a little better.

at 14:03:45 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Terri King Dickson Wow.... $281????

at 14:05:14 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Candy Gallman Melanie Younginer Maddox so true because you can rent cabins in the mountains of SC for less than 100 dollars a night.

at 14:05:21 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Kevin Linder Seems a little high

at 14:06:40 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Alyssa Plano Wow that seems high. I just looked at air bnb places at the beach and found larger more private places for less money. Perhaps I'm missing something cool about this place that justifies the price 🤔

at 14:08:12 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Sandra Markovich-Nunes Melanie Younginer Maddox it's literally right near the lighthouse which gives daily tours to loads of people.

at 14:11:56 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Amelia Owens Alyssa Plano you ain't missing nothing. Its not worth it at all 😊

at 14:12:49 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Leslie Allen Melanie Younginer Maddox agreed. A bit steep especially a last min opening.
at 14:13:07 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Jessica Wilkerson Phillips I get it, most people think it's not worth it. Most people will stay elsewhere and have a different experience. 🤔
at 14:13:38 on 11/23/2020 UTC

W Richard Thomasson Charleton Bagwell SC has the 13th lowest tax burden in the nation. That comes with a price, lots of user fees and pseudo user fees that don't get included in tax rates. Paying more for parking and fines is a local example, higher cabin costs is state example. Looks like a nice cabin though/would be fun.
at 14:15:48 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Margaret Megan Tracy I take care of oceanfront places in Pawleys Island. You could get a really nice beach house for this price on the ocean! State parks should be affordable to all people!
at 14:16:08 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Jennifer Bumpus Galbraith Wow! We travel to a lot of state parks but $281 is insane. I guess we won't be doing that.

Karen Herschell I remember when the purpose of state parks was to provide places of recreation for ALL people and cabins were simple and INEXPENSIVE, so that nearly anyone could afford to stay at one. Imagine that.

Karen Herschell Susan Whitaker But is it right that state park accommodations are now priced out of reach of the average South Carolinian?

Karen Herschell Wendy Thompson Actually, a number of years ago the state government decided that the parks had to pay for themselves, so they have drastically changed their services and costs and they cut staff, etc. I have lived in SC twice, and the parks had many more programs and were cheaper when we came here first for a couple of years about 20 years ago compared to when we moved back here about 5 years ago. Very sad. And I am glad that when my kids were little, the parks were cheaper, and had more rangers and programs and places to swim with lifeguards, etc.

Fran Sanderson Darlene Sinatra I'm glad it's up! Trust me. I want the parks to succeed. I'm a public servant and believe whole heartedly in service, particularly education and stewarding of our natural places. But .... there are few folks who can afford that price AND... it's way overpriced. Seems like a capitalistic ploy to me. Rubs a bit wrong.

at 15:33:16 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Sue Rimkus Harmelink Is this cabin right by the lighthouse, or just called the lighthouse cabin?

at 15:35:59 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Darlene Sinatra Fran Sanderson there are 47 State Parks available, not all priced the same, some are free for day use, important enough, you start a savings jar, good lesson for kids to learn to put away for what they want. Never miss a teaching lesson about saving, whether a rainy day or a vacation.

at 15:47:24 on 11/23/2020 UTC

Danny Lin Fran Sanderson they do need every penny. As you mentioned, it takes a lot to keep a park, especially Hunting Island and it's erosion. Think of it like staying inside the park worths something.

other SC State Park listing nearby—a house now owned by the SC state park system that rents for $12,000 for a minimum of 5 nights. Or $20,000 for 5 nights if you want to shut off ferry service to the island and have your own private island for the five nights. Now that's bourgeois!

Moneaka Beth Jones Smith Not to mention the fact that, for an extra $10.00 a night, the people who stay in this cabin have the entire park to themselves after it closes and have a light house as a night light.

You get more than what you pay for considering it's the only cabin left on the island. It was remodeled with lots of addons last year also. The park staff is just a phone call away if there are any issues. You get to climb the light house for free and get a discount at the gift shop.

The staff dis not create the concept of supply and demand. This park provides many affordable options to visit an exceptional park.
