Dear Tony,

Its springtime at Saluda Shoals Park and it's time for Midlands Gives!

For the past four years, the Saluda Shoals Foundation has raised money to support various programs in the Park like environmental education and, last year, the Barking Lot Dog Park!

This year, we invite you to join us in raising money to support and enhance the Park's extraordinary environmental education programs. Every year, the Park hosts thousands of elementary, middle and high school students studying ecology and biology. Through hands-on exploration and up-close observation, these students get a first-hand view of the plants, animals and ecosystems they study in the classroom.

On May 2, 2017, Midlands Gives Day, your gift of $20 or more will help us restore the outdoor classroom areas damaged by the October 2015 flood. Additionally, we are raising funds to add new interactive signage and developing lessons to give students a first-hand look at the devastation and re-creation caused by an act of nature.

Please make your gift TODAY by visiting www.midlandsgives.org/saludashoalsfoundation

Hey - are you a night owl?

Help us win an additional $1,000 by making your donation by the light of the moon during the 11:00 p.m. to midnight Power Hour. The nonprofit with the most unique gifts during this hour wins! And, if you are the last gift of the day, we receive $2,500!

Sincerely,

Dolly G. Patton
