Hi Christian,

Here is the simplified flowchart of what we plan to monitor/report to the delegations and communities for our Data Index.

It is my humble opinion that an Office of the Child Advocate would be a great answer to the current issues (see this link from Georgia: <http://oca.georgia.gov/welcome>).

Here is the link to the legislation that created the OCA: <http://www.legis.ga.gov/Legislation/Archives/19992000/leg/fulltext/sb500.htm>. The Governor could create it on her own and appoint an interim director who would be a neutral party that report on all things Child Welfare.

I will send more information at your request. Just want to keep you informed.
