CMS Commits to Effective Communication for All Individuals with Disabilities in All of Its Programs

CMS and the HHS Office for Civil Rights (OCR) have entered into an agreement to ensure that individuals with disabilities can access information provided by CMS and its contractors in CMS programs. The agreement resolves two complaints filed with OCR by the Disability Rights Education and Defense Fund on behalf of two named complainants participating in the Medicare Program and other Medicare consumers who are blind or have low vision and who need accessible information in Medicare communications.
