So I'm a little late on seeing this. But yesterday I drove to the state house to get the park pass and was told it was the first 10 people only. I have a bout an hour and a half drive to the state house and it was a pretty much a waste a trip. The email that received did not say this. I arrived at the state house at approximately 1045 and was told that I was not one of the first 10 people. The lady was nice about it I asked her about the email that I had received that did not say anything about 10 people she said that it was an incorrect email. I'm sending a picture of the email that I received and of the post that you all put up yesterday to message yall.

Reaching out again because I haven't heard anything. I called the office in Columbia and she said that someone would message me back here.
