Subject: INNOCENT PROSTITUTES ~ Website email from Richard Frates

Innocent Prostitutes on Parade: Demanding Payment for Services. Referring to a woman who may have had an affair, as a prostitute, is not warranted; until they demand payment by a lawsuit. My parents had a saying, when it comes to relationships between men and women: "It takes two to tango." In other words, he, being guilty, does not establish, she is innocent; most likely she is just guilty or more. Why is it that: When the "Contrived Charge" of "Sexual Harassment" is made - He is always guilty, and she, is always innocent - Though, they both have been, sexually promiscuous? Some lawyers will charge that: These influential and rich men have a parade of women accusing them. But, other men - the same women, have been promiscuous with, do not proclaim their folly, and line up in a parade to accuse women. Media and our emasculated political leaders, wave a Banner over the Nation, stating that: All sexually promiscuous women are innocent because of: Sexual Harassment. The Artificial Offence, of "Sexual Harassment" justifies women, who are just as promiscuous as the men they accuse. A woman in the office has sexual relations with, another woman's husband - an affair that last a year and is called a victim in a lawsuit; when she is, a sexually promiscuous adulteress; and just as guilty as the man. The more influence and money a man may have, the more women avail themselves to them. Promiscuous men are guilty. But, women who are sexually promiscuous have been made, helpless innocent victims. Sexually promiscuous women are excused with the claim of "sexual harassment." The, Contrived Offence of "Sexual Harassment" is designed to provide women, and their lawyers, a basis to attack as many men as possible. Women charge "sexual Harassment" to justifies their sexually promiscuous behavior and get paid for services provided. Who is sexually harassing who? Police Join the Parade of Innocent Prostitutes: The Guardian - New York City police believe a 2010 rape allegation made against Harvey Weinstein by actress Paz de la Huerta is credible; even though she waited years to make the claim that he raped her twice on different days in her apartment; that is ridiculous. She prostituted herself: Made a sexual investment, to gain advances as an actress; and like an actress, plays innocent victim. Just because, evil men take advantage of women to get what they want, and evil women agree and give it to them, to get what she wants; does not mean men are guilty, and women are innocent. The Police interviewed her but, did they ask her: Why did you let him in your apartment the second time when, you claimed that he raped you the first time he was in your apartment? That fact alone, proves her claim of rape is Not Credible. Did they ask her: Why she did not report the rape immediately? Did he beat you, to get you to submit? Why didn't you scream for help? She claims that she was afraid of him. If she was truly afraid of him, then, why was she not afraid of him raping her twice, as she claimed? Screaming loudly for help would have sent him running out of her apartment. Saying no, while Submitting to his Sexual Advances, is not "saying No" but is, saying Yes. When men force themselves on a woman, and there is: No scream, No fight, No Resistance or Running Away, No Report to Police; But just submission instead: Was she Truly Raped? Rape is violent and requires force; No force, No Rape. Definition for rape: "Forced to have sex". Judges and Lawmakers have, Weaponized Women, and, No Man is Safe; If women are not required to bring charges of physical sexual assault or rape, immediately after it happened. The fact is: If women do not, scream for help and report a sexual assault or rape to police immediately, the sexual encounter was consensual; Deuteronomy 22:23-24. Judges should - be required - to dismiss all charges of "sexual harassment" and only consider charges of physical sexual assault and rape. Police Join the Parade of Innocent Prostitute in the UK: Liam Allan, went through hell for two years fighting charges of rape; he faced 20 years in prison. The police dismissed texts as irrelevant and personal, that proved his innocence and his accuser's claim of rape as false. There were 40,000 texts from his alleged victim's phone pestering him for sex and bragging about having sex with him to her friends that police kept secret for about 2 years. Senior attorneys warn, this is not an isolated incident. Liam Alan is thinking of suing the police. Will police arrest the women for making false charges? The Sun a UK Company, thesun.co.uk. The evil motives of a "sexual harassment" lawsuit is the same as a prostitute: Take advantage of the weaknesses of men for money. And, worse than a prostitute; to punish, put men in jail and confiscate their wealth. Women, hearing about the millions awarded for sexual harassment are thinking: "I hope someone would sexual harass me". The Parade of Innocent Prostitutes Is: full of Lawmakers and Judges; anxiously pandering for female support and claiming to be defenders of women. To them, the guilt of a woman is irrelevant and not even considered. Attack License: Women have been given a - License to Attack - any man she is not happy with. A dangerous situation allowed by our incompetent lawmakers and judges. Effectively: Judicial and Legal Prostitution is being established: Promiscuous Women - Men with money, must pay. And, if the man has no money, jailed. Those who seek love, will forget and cover an offence; but the vindictive, and those who seek money, will dig them up.
