Well – official congrats on surviving legislative year 2013. I know you're already well into planning on the exec budget and looking forward to next year, but this article today reminded me that I wanted to check in on the Gov's health care summit idea...

I see that the RGA is already planning a Corporate Policy meeting in Chas on Sept. 16-17 – maybe we could piggyback our proposed smaller meeting around those dates when some of our key Gov's might already be inclined to be here?

Hope it's a well-deserved and restful 4th!
