Enter for a chance to win 4 tickets! To the Columbia Choral Society's spring concert.

The Columbia Choral Society continues its season of collaboration, joining with many talented musicians from Richland Northeast and Ridge View High Schools for its upcoming concert, The New Guard Sings the Old Masters.

Joining the Columbia Choral Society and the high school vocalists and instrumentalists will be a professional chamber orchestra.

The concert features works by Haydn, Mozart and Stamitz, and will take place on Sunday, March 26 at Washington Street United Methodist Church in Columbia @ 4pm. Everyone is invited to watch and hear The New Guard Sings the Old Masters, the final concert of the year of the Columbia Choral Society, South Carolina's longest continuously performing community chorus.
