Jimmy,

Following-up from last week... I think you two might have had a call together a while ago, but Sharon Minnich and I worked together on a whole range of projects in Pennsylvania. She led our ERP project and finance transformation initiative, plus played a big role in sourcing, etc.

She's with Deloitte's Harrisburg office now and was hoping you two would have a chance to get together next month when you're in PA for your talk. If nothing else, it'll be a good chance to commiserate.

I gave her your office number, so she'll call sometime in the next couple days to compare schedules, etc.
Thanks.
