Dear Chamber Members,

On November 16th Governor Nikki Haley and Central Carolina Community Foundation (CCCF), a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization serving South Carolina since 1984, announced the One SC Fund, a fundraising effort that will help South Carolinians still recovering from unprecedented flooding to re-build and repair their homes.

In addition to many local leaders, the following South Carolinians from entertainment, business and public service have joined the governor's relief effort and agreed to serve on the One SC Advisory Committee: Governor David Beasley, Tajh Boyd, Stephen Colbert, Jay Haas, Marcus Lattimore, Edwin McCain, Bob McNair, Craig Melvin, Chris Randolph, Jerry Richardson, Mayor Joe Riley, Darius Rucker, Steve Spurrier, Dawn Staley, Dabo Swinney, and Anita Zucker.

Many state and federal governmental agencies and non-profits assisted citizens immediately following the flood with short-term needs such as temporary housing, food, clothing, home repairs, and other supplies, but as our State moves into the long-term recovery phase, the greatest anticipated unmet need is getting people back into a safe, habitable home. The goal of One SC is to help bridge the gap between existing governmental and non-profit assistance and these unmet needs. FEMA estimates that as of January 1, 2016, 727 households will still be out-of-home, some of those because of lack of resources.

The Governor's Original Six Foundation has donated funds to underwrite the administrative costs of the fund, so 100% of the donations will go to assisting South Carolinians.

Watch the attached PSA by Governor Haley about One SC <http://goo.gl/UkEm3K>. You can help your neighbors today by making a donation to One SC. We hope you will share this with your local membership for awareness and potential donations.
