Tony,

Here is an update (gave you update on 8/22) on VDHCBS since mid-August. I received a payment notice yesterday so wanted to include that amount ($18,727.68 – Chas. June)

- Eric Weakly from AoA called asking for an update on Charleston; he will check with other staff to see if Dan has ever talked with them about continuing the program
- VDHCBS Coordinator in Charleston took an new position in Orangeburg
- Received email response from Chas. stating they do not plan to continue the program; current veterans will be served but no new ones will be added; have not received OK from Central Office to shut program down
- Received signed copies of MOU's for Trident and Santee Lynches
- Care Coordinator in Santee Lynches was let go; for now Connie Munn is the contact
- PPL is going to work with Deana Reid to train her on Business Rules and the PPL Portal
- Have submitted PRF's for August for PPL, Santee Lynches and Trident
- 9/5 was told by Mark Altieri at PPL that both Chas. and Dorn VA will receive approx. $750,000 each in new federal fiscal year if VA budget approved (relayed this info to you same day)
- Chas. currently has 9 veterans and Dorn has 47
- Dorn still wants to expand to Greenville area; Glenn stated there were over 300,000 veterans in that area and getting 50 for the program will not be a problem

Let me know if you need anything else.
